

GRAND PRIZE WINNER — Bob Miller of Lomita, student at Fernin Lassen High School, was the lucky winner of the 1962 Mercury Meteor 2-door sedan, grand prize of the school's annual fiesta. Shown above with his prize is the youth, Father Jansen, principal of the school, and Sam Priestly of Cabrillo Motors, donors of the car.

Grasham Named CICA Chairman

At the recent conference in Santa Barbara of the California Junior College Association, Dr. John Grasham, Dean of Instruction at Harbor College, was appointed chairman of the curriculum committee of the CICA.

"With the over-all goal of improvement in instruction in mind," stated Dr. Grasham, "two conferences will be arranged—one in the northern section of the state and one in the south."

Hosting the southern conference in October will be Mr. Gerry Daniel at Long Beach City College. Chairman of this event will be Mr. Tom O'Connor of Mt. San Antonio College and assisting him will be members of the curriculum committee of the Southern California Junior College Association.

Ronald L. Surber Selected as Finalist for Award

Five teenagers in the southwest district of Junior Achievement have just been selected as finalists for the Los Angeles area Executive Award, highest honor in the movement for young Americans to understand and operate the free enterprise system.

As announced by Manny Wise, JA district manager, they are:

- Dolores D. Deutsch, student at Morningside High School, who is vice president of sales of Ja-board Co., the JA company counselled by Aerospace Corp.; Roger S. Macomber, Inglewood High School, president of West Ware, counselled by Western Airlines; Dennis V. Stojewa, Washington, president of Kan Tiki, McCulloch Corp.; Ronald L. Surber, Torrance, president of Lo-Go Products, Space Technology Labs; and Ramona Taylor, Mira Costa, president of Marineco, Standard Oil Company.

LIMITED

The Executive Award is limited to less than five percent of the total JA membership each year. Qualifications include: two years of JA activity in good standing; winner of Junior Executive Award; and a record in extra-curricular activities, such as participation in conferences, trade fairs, and speaking engagements, just as adult business executives.

The overriding qualification, according to Mr. Wise, is that the applicant must demonstrate in his application an understanding of American business and has the ability to explain the principles to employees, customers and stockholders. The District nominees will

FOULS

Here's another Angel first for Los Angeles; in an effort to keep the games moving as rapidly as possible, the Angels have "signed" a couple of fou-line ball boys to hasten the retrieving of foul balls hit down the lines. Richard London covers left field and Brian Nofziger takes care of right field.
